Booking add-on, Soup of the Day, Socks, and Meeting & Event bookings | Terms & Conditions

1.0 Booking add-on

When booking a stay through pentahotels.com during the campaign period, guests will be able to pre-book a “Soup and Socks” booking add-on which entitles them to a pair of socks and a bowl of soup during their stay. The sale is open to guests and visitors of Pentahotels (except Asia).

All participating Pentahotels will hold a limited stock of Penta X Stand4Socks socks available for purchase. The price of the add-on is 12 € in Germany, Austria, Belgium and France, 12 £ in the UK, 350 CZK in Prague, and 1050 RUB in Moscow. This is a reduced bundle price compared to purchasing the items separately in the hotels.

The add-on will be available for stays booked through the booking engine up until 72 hours prior to the check-in date. The add-on is not available for stays that are booked with less than 72 hours until the check-in date.

The price for this add-on is to be either paid in advance or authorised upon check-in, depending which payment option is chosen when booking.

The socks are available in two different sizes (SMALL and LARGE) and the guest can select their size when booking. The design may vary.

The guest will be provided with their socks and a voucher for a Soup of the Day at check-in. Vouchers can be redeemed in the Pentalounge when ordering a soup of the day. Vouchers should be treated like cash, as lost or stolen vouchers cannot be replaced.

Sales of the Soup and Socks add-on will be exempt from any other form of discount and cannot be used in conjunction with any other offer, including the Friends discount.

The socks are produced as a limited-edition and cannot be restocked. Once sold out the booking add-on will no longer be available.

All sales are final, exchanges and refunds at Pentahotels are excluded.

If an item is faulty or damaged, the Promoter of the Anniversary Campaign, Penta Hotels Worldwide GmbH (Frankfurt am Main) may be contacted at marketing@pentahotels.com within 30 days from the date of purchase to initiate a return or exchange.

For each add-on sold, a pair of socks and a bowl of soup will be donated to the local charity partner of the individual hotels at the end of the campaign.

Penta Hotels Worldwide GmbH is not a charitable organisation and the purchase of socks is not tax deductible.
